THE CLASS OF '49

MASSEY

THROUGH THE YEARS . . .

The class of 1949 has kept faith with those preceding Trinitonians who breathed life into that immortal spirit — the spirit of Tigerland.

In their four years of life at Trinity, the class of '49 has carried high the torch of the Tigerland spirit along the road to the final goal — a college diploma. They have striven not only to uphold the principles of Trinity but to better them. Individual members of the class have taken a leading role in the academic and social aspects of the University.

Those first few freshmen who arrived at the Trinity campus a few months after the end of World War II formed the nucleus of the class of '49. From the first, they were the "forty-niners," and thru the years, they have been neither Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, or Seniors, but rather, "forty-niners." And in them, both as a class and as individuals, we see reflected the spirit of the '49-ers of the Gold Rush Days.

Therefore, we of the Mirage staff offer this book as tribute to the spirit of the '49-ers of Trinity University.

President's Message

There is a certain tang of regret coupled with commencement because of the parting of college friends. There is something about the associations of a college campus that sends the roots of friendship deep down into the soil of our lives.

At times these relations may have seemed rather light and not very significant, but in reality, they have gone far deeper into your own personalities than you can now appreciate.

Not all of your college associates have been equally acceptable to you or meaningful to your life. Someone has said: "It is one of the ironies of life that our intimates often provoke us more than our enemies."

The purpose of Trinity University has been to blend properly spiritual appreciation, a sense of responsibility, and an acquisition of essential knowledge. The three should go together and we trust have been purely woven in your own experience. We trust that you may relate yourselves now to the church in sincere loyalty and to all good causes that need your support. The world needs the best that you can give.

We are proud of you and wish you the greatest success.

In the first year of its existence, the Student Court has successfully proved its worth as a democratic part of the student government. It has made decisions in all cases concerning students. Judges are appointed by the Student Council and, after investigation, approved by the Legislative Assembly. Four judges are chosen from the Senior class, two from the Junior class, and one from the Sophomore class. A cross section of the student body, they represent various departments and organizations, enabling them to act more wisely.

SPURS

The Spurs, upperclasswomen's social club, has united fifty girls into an organization of vivacious life expressed through varied activities. These girls have been chosen for scolarship and leadership abilities. Conducting many of the gala social events of the year, the Spurs have included on their calendar a tea honoring all women on the campus, two formal dances, a dinner honoring its new members, an all day picnic at Landa Park, an informal Christmas dance, and the Frolic of Hearts.

"Once a Spur, always a Spur!" reflects the spirit of this organization. Ever capable and cooperative, the members of the Spurs have served the University in virtually every capacity—cheerfully and efficiently promoting the best interests of the school.

The club is under the sponsorship of Dr. Frances K. Hendricks who also served as sponsor of the Spurs while they were part of the University of San Antonio.

MARY CATHERINE HALL FELLOWSHIP

Friendship, cooperation, and general enjoyment are the key words to life in Mary Catherine Hall. The various pajama parties with their strange but interesting programs, the occasional door slamming episodes, the regular trips to the basement for candy and cokes, the wails of those who are campused, the room parties during study hours—all these things have combined to make life in Mary Catherine Hall eventful and happy.

In addition to such gala occasions were the Hallowe'en party and the Christmas caroling party for the dorm boys, the formal Christmas tea in honor of faculty and friends and the Open House, annual events which find prominence on its social calendar.

Under the direction of the House Council, which included officers and representatives from each class in the dorm, and able guidance of Miss Mildred Schrotberger, the girls have made 1949 a year of companionable living.

TRINITY UNIVERSITY BAND

The Trinity University Band has played this year through thick and thin—including the thin rain at Corpus and the thick mud of the Homecoming game. With an unceasing spirit, they have been right behind the team and the school at all times.

Although small in number of members, the band time and again brought smiles and support from Trinity boosters and friends. Providing a new twist to an old stunt, the band gained wide recognition among football audiences for its rendition of the "ol' football-field killing."

The rain which fell on Homecoming Day resulted in the cancellation of all events previously planned for that day, but the band rolled up its collective trousers' legs, grabbed its slickers, obtained a tin can to replace the bass drum and marched onto the muddy football field and into the chilled hearts of the fans, who sat huddled in the grandstands.

No member of the Trinity family will e'er again hear the familiar strains of the "Tiger Rag" at kick-off time without a thought for the '49 T. U. Band who proved that it "had what it takes." Nor will they e'er forget this small band's proud rendition of the Trinity University alma mater:

(First Verse)

We'll sing of thee, O Trinity,
The school without a peer.
Thy halls of learning, hallowed walls,
Are honored far and near.
Thy sons and daughters, staunch and true,
Will ever live for thee, Alma Mater! Alma Mater!
Hail to thee, all hail, Trinity!

(Second Verse)

Thy colors bright, maroon and white,
Float proudly on the breeze;
And in the fight thy sons of might
Win glorious victories.
O Trinity, our mother dear,
We love and honor thee, Alma Mater! Alma Mater!
Hail to thee, all hail, Trinity!

(Chorus)

O Trinity, brave mother,
Thy name we love to hear;
We'll sing thy praise forever,
Thou art to us so dear.
Long live thy fame and splendor,
Our hearts shall be thy throne;
Then reign supreme and glorious,
Thou reignest alone.

TOURING CHOIR

Trinity University's Touring Choir is composed of forty-six students carefully selected from the University Choir. Under the direction of Dr. Ralph Ewing, and with their "godmother" accompanist, Miss Mary Beth Mewborn, the choir made a 2,000 mile tour of West Texas and New Mexico last November as well as a trip to sing at the Mid-Winter Valley Fair in Harlingen. These trips, many local appearances, and long hours of practice have welded this group into one happy family and a top-notch musical organization.

THE 1948-49 TRINITONIAN STAFF

has once more closed the door to the Press Hut and signed —30— to the 47th year of publication of the Trinitonian. Under the guiding hand of Oscar Sims, the editor, the Staff has placed the Trinitonian with the top college newspapers in the United States. Acclaimed by the Associated Collegiate Press for its high journalistic standards, the Trinitonian was given the Medalist Award.

The never-ceasing cranking of the addressograph, the weary hours of proofreading, and that last minute covering of an important story—all these are finished, and the Trinitonian office is quiet once again. Oscar and his staff can now view with pride the year of faithful service the Trinitonian has given to the University and to the students.

This Year THE MIRAGE STAFF

ASSISTANT EDITOR
Carol Ekloff

— was a "different" group, to say the least, for few of its members had ever before worked on an annual. Gathered from the four corners of the campus, the staff was composed of biology majors, education majors, P. E. majors, and a couple of journalism majors who had never heard of "eye-level", "cuts", "copy", "half-tones", or the "baby dummy".

After spending many weary hours in the library gathering ideas for the art theme, the art staff soon became authorities on the life of the Gold Rush '49ers. Meanwhile, the business staff kept propped up before their eyes that very popular text "How To Sell Advertising."

Then came the printing and engraving deadlines. Armed with scissors, rulers, glue, and wearing the look of condemned men trudging the last mile, the editorial staff met more deadlines than Carter has little liver pills.

And so this year, as in the past, the Annual staff has pasted, patched, scrapped, and sprouted a few grey hairs to give you your Mirage.

YELL LEADERS

(Left to Right): Florence, Masters, Browne, Couch, Southall, McCally.

"Okay, gang, when they come out o' that huddle, let 'em hear ya"————

Such were the bywords of our able cheer leaders throughout the '48 football season. Over and over have we poured out one more lung full, to their urgent plea of "Come on and yell up there—you dead?

So they lead the school spirit which is so vital to all of our athletics. The yell leaders are chosen by popular election each year. Theirs is the responsibility of keeping alive the pilot-light of Trinity spirit, and kindling it into the flame that is personified by the immortal "Trumpet Yell."

Captaining the "Twelfth Man Team" were Hazel Jo Florence, Billy Bob Masters, Bettie Browne, Doc Couch, Frances Southall, and Bill McCally.

Unifying school spirit is no small task. It is not easy, as any one of the leaders will tell you, and recognition for valuable and helpful service should be given to the deserving. It is important to keep the student body in the right spirit and behind the Tigers in any endeavor, win or lose.

Journeying down to Corpus, the Tigers opened the season with a 14-0 win over the Tarpons of the bay city on the evening of Sept. 18. Highlight of the game was a 45 yard end sweep by Tommy Watt behind beautiful blocking which sent the flying Tiger over the Tarpon goal untouched early in the third period. In the first part of the game big Gerald Levermann bruised over the goal from the 6 after a crashing drive by the Bengal eleven. Walter Levermann split the uprights to convert both points after touchdowns. A happy crowd of students made the return trip on the chartered train.

Astounding fans everywhere, the Trinity grid crew wrecked a good Mississippi Southern team 26-9 in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, on October 9. Rated a three touchdown underdog, the Tigers clawed their opponents early with a 71 yard paydirt scamper by fleet Lloyd Parker after a hand-off from Charlie Jetton. Fifty-four yards of passing and running were climaxed by a one yard scoring plunge by Gerald "Dutch" Levermann. Still in the first period, the Bengals scored again when Gerald Levermann threw a 27 yard pass to Collie. The fourth score for the Tigers came as Levermann again went over from the one to climax a long third period drive. Walt Levermann kicked two of four points.

Upsetting a good Oklahoma City eleven 6-0, the Trinity Tigers showed power against a powerful team. The score came when Gerald Levermann smashed across from the one after a 51 yard pass play from Levermann to Lloyd Parker set up the play. The play before that, a touchdown pass of 46 yards to Chambliss was nullified because of a penalty. In this game the line was outstanding, particularly Little All-America Candidate Darrel Hogan. Trinity's tight defense was impregnable to the powerful Oklahoma Chiefs. Linemen, Wendell, Jobson, Shefts, Schulze, Meyers, and Curtis were the big bricks in the Bengal forward wall.

CAPTAIN
Pete Murphy

Opening the season with a 56-49 win over Texas A&M, the Tiger cagers impressed the spectators with their disregard for odds. With Captain Pete Murphy back and bolstered with the addition of Eddie Recko, Buck Kackiela, and Jack Lutz, Coach "Swede" Engstrom had little trouble in forming an improved team to pound the hardwoods for Trinity. While last year's team could win only one conference game, this year's team won three. Two of the Tiger victories were chalked up at the expense of the St. Mary's Rattlers of San Antonio.

Starters Tom Daniel, Jack Lutz, Buck Kackiela, Eddie Recko, and Pete Murphy played great ball at times as did their capable substitutes, Charley Chadwell, Weldon Thomas, Tommy Watt, Henry Escabedo, Gerald Levermann, Frank Bates, and Charley Urbanowich. High scorers for the team were Pete Murphy and Eddie Recko in that order.

The Junior Varsity, led by Tom Austin, also turned in worthy efforts as they won most of their games.

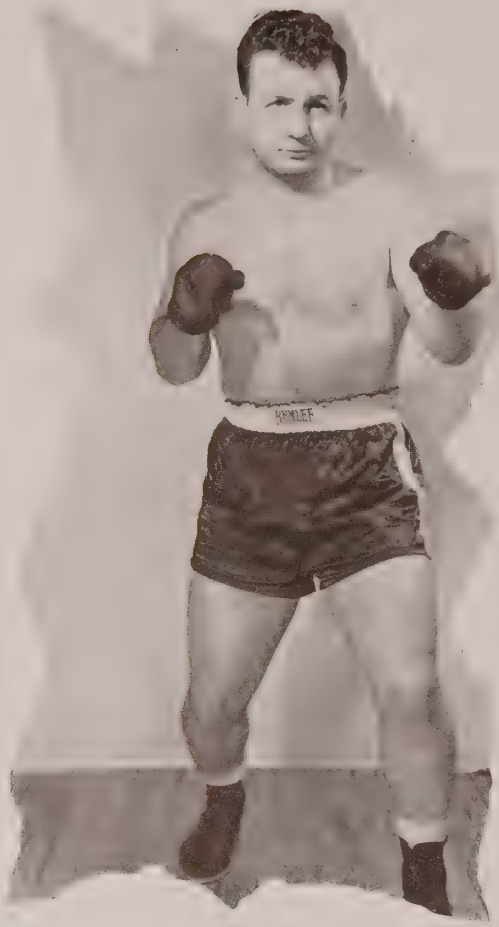
VARSITY BOXING



JACK HINSON

Before the printing press stamped the words on these pages, the Tiger boxers under Wib Richarz stamped quite a few of their pugilistic opponents on the canvas. In the Golden Gloves three fighters won over all opposition in San Antonio, while one other lost in the finals. David Carter, light-heavy, went to the state tournament in Fort Worth only to lose in the finals to a boy who went far in the national tournament.

Thursday, March 11, the Bengal beak-busters came from behind to tie the powerful McNeese Junior College team in an eight bout match. Other matches were to follow after the printing of this annual. Though we couldn't know, we can feel sure that the Tiger boxers pummelled their way to many more victories.

Hammering Eddie Hudspeth distinguished himself by KO'ing three opponents in a row in the Golden Gloves.

Bill Rawls' win in the Open Division and Jack Schulze's win in the Novice Division of the Golden Gloves gave Trinity a monopoly in the heavy-weight class. Jack KO'ed a 280 pound soldier to win his final bout.

The Trinity boxers lost their first match to McNeese Junior College when they journeyed to Lake Charles for the first of two meetings with the Louisiana team.

Coach Wib Richarz was one of the best boxers in his class in the whole Southwest a few years ago. All of the boys respect and like to work for Wib.

VARSITY TRACK

FALKENBURG

Coach Gil Steinke, though very short-handed, has made a pretty fair 1949 track team. The big four, including Lloyd Parker, Howard Johnston, Herb Falkenberg, and Jimmy Southworth, have doubled up and won enough events that Trinity University always came out with a respectable point total. In the Fort Worth Meet on March 25, the Tigers came out second in the College division. In the meet were all of the Lone Star Conference members. Sonny Ezer and Paul Carter have also helped the cinder crew in some meets.

At this writing, the track season is incomplete, but when the Trinity cinder stars hang up their spikes for the year, the record books may well show a good record despite many handicaps.

Awards were given at the annual intramural banquet attended by the athletes and their favorite fans—their girl friends. Next year a drive will be put on to improve the Trinity intramural department even more.

INTRAMURAL SWIMMING MEET

In a meet held at Woodlawn Lake, Saturday, March 26, Trinity intramural swimmers put on a good show while a spirited crowd watched. The Clamity Six nudged out the Veterans Barracks 56 to 49. Wib Richarz and Manuel DeLarrea were in charge of the meet.

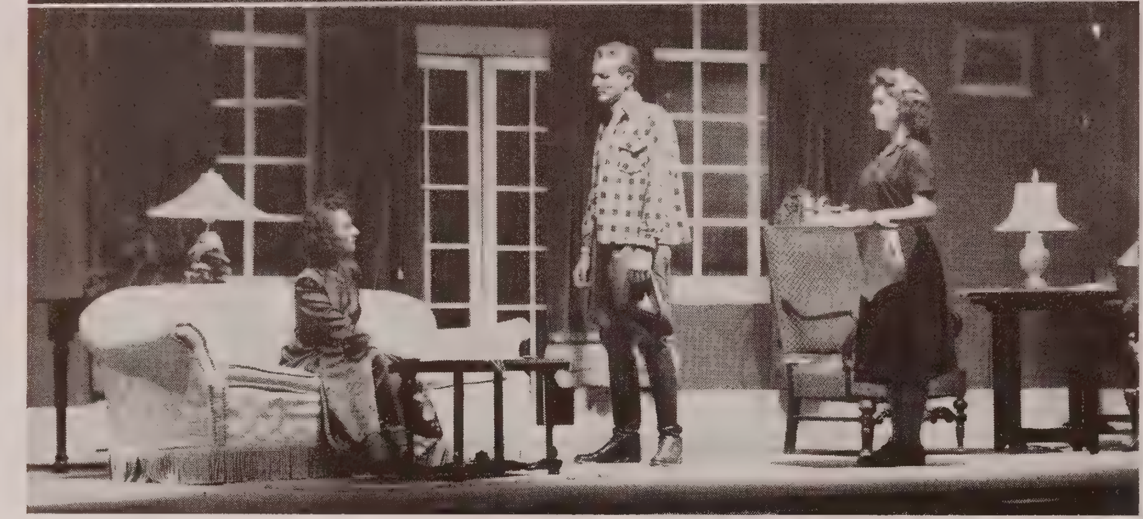
PARLOR STORY

Garland Yell and Pat Thompson head a glorious cast that appeared in this play on October 22 at San Pedro and then embarked on a 900 mile tour of Texas.



DARK VICTORY

Probably the most stirring and dramatic play of the season. The story of a young doctor who loved a girl he knew was destined to die, Virginia Grear and Bill Hathaway and a superb supporting cast had the audience in tears.

CLAUDIA

March 4th welcomed the "springy" comedy - drama "Claudia" to complete the season. Janie Parker and Ed Pendleton and a convincing cast cleverly rendered what many termed the funniest play of the year.

FOG ISLAND

Trinity and San Antonio had a chance to see a world premiere of a great play when this play by E. Clayton McCarty had its initial performance at San Pedro on November 17th.

Dear MIRAGE staff,

Well, kids, we've done it—even if there were many times when this annual really did seem to be a "mirage". Looking back over the past year, I remember not the hard work but the laughs that we shared in putting out the '49 MIRAGE.

For shall any of us ever forget those nights Searight sat up with the staff just to give us moral support, if nothing else? Or Pid with her "ruler eyes"? Or Red who worked all night exclaiming every five minutes that she was resigning if the annual wrecked her health? Or Carol who slaved on a layout just to discover that, besides being a little cross-eyed, she had miscalculated 1/32 of an inch? Or Ralph who counted his new grey hairs every time we showed him the latest expenditures to add to the budget? Or Janie, C. E., and Frances who developed those "eye-level complexes"? Or Ritchey, Barbe, and Emily who still look a little sick when some unknowing soul mentions the word "club" in their presence? Or Bill who is still wondering which Levermann made which touchdown in which game? Or that horrified look of the art staff when we asked them if one of the group would mind drawing up the WRA symbol again "cause we lost it, Raymond"? Or those knowing glances we received from the engraver and the printer when we came in empty-handed on deadline day? Or Floyd and his immortal expression: "cheese"? Or the many times we stayed up all night, "just to keep the coffee pot company"?

Yep, you've all developed an "annual complex" of some sort or the other, you've all worked hard, and you've all done a grand job.

Thanks a million.

Your ever-loving editor,

Jano
